

Accept "No" by saying "Okay" and do not get mad.

Right Way

The boy says "Okay" and does not get mad. He knows he will get to play the game later.

Wrong Way

The boy gets mad and does not accept "No" for an answer.

Say "Excuse me..." then ask for what you need or want.

Right Way

The boy says "Excuse me" and asks for help.

Wrong Way

The boy did not say "Excuse me" or ask for help. He just grabbed the teacher.
